

Sergey wins!!!

Thursday, 06 September 2007

After a 2nd place by Pol and 4th, 6th, 2nd places in stages by Sergey, finally there was a sweet victory in the Tour de Korea!!

Sergey won the 6th stage, beating Park, who seemed almost unbeatable in the field sprints.

The whole team had a part in the victory, as Joe was in the break of the day, Kenji and Pol worked to bring it back and helped Sergey position. Thijs was in a move with some GC favorites.

Unfortunately the team lost Hisanori yesterday, with a knee injury.

Park did get 6 seconds bonification and now leads GC by 3 seconds to Hannes Blank, with Discovery Marco Polo's Pol Nabben in third, 36 seconds down. Thijs is also still in contention for GC (some 30 riders within a minute or so), 44 seconds from Park.

Stage 7 sees a climb of 35 km's, so will very probably be deciding for GC.
