

Brad White 6th in prologue Tour of Hainan - China

Saturday, 03 November 2007

Brad White had a strong performance in the 3 km prologue of the Tour of Hainan. After 70 riders finished he still had the best time and was waiting in the 'hot chair'. However 5 riders still beat his time and ended within 3,5 seconds. So there are chances for improving his position in the coming days.

Winner of the prologue was Russian rider Galimzyanov, second was Ma Haijun from China! and third Robert Lyte an Olympic hopeful for Australia on the 4 km pursuit.
