

Disaster strikes in stage 4

Thursday, 10 January 2008

After 3 great stages with just as many podium placings, todays stage in the Tour of Malaysia was not a good one for the Trek - Marco Polo Team.

Sergey had a bad crash and had to abaondon the race and on top of that, the team could not prevent ten riders go up the road and get 6 minutes out of the field, meaning that Fuyu lost his leaders' jersey.

More news soon.
