

Loh hero of the day in stage 5

Saturday, 12 January 2008

After days of hard work in a row for team leader Fuyu Li, Loh (and of course the other riders too) did have a chance to go for own chance in stage 5. Loh managed to be in the break of the day, a fantastic performance!

The break got caught a few kilometers before the finish line, after staying away from the ever chasing(!) field for 60 kms.

Fuyu was 7th in the field sprint and Xing Yan Dong 20th.

Stage 6 features a big part of the famous Genting highlands climb, which will hopefully give the climbers in the team a chance to show their ability. Hopefully they recovered as well as Loh!
