

Xing Yan Dong crashes out of Tour de Langkawi

Thursday, 08 February 2007

Xing Yan Dong had a terrible high speed crash in stage 6 of Tour de Langkawi. The race doctor thought he had broken his elbow and insisted to take him to a hospital. When Xing saw the terrible cut in his hand he almost fainted; in hospital the wound got stitched and his finger and elbow were x-rayed. Nothing broken, luckily!

His elbow is still totally swollen, but otherwise he is OK and will be riding again soon!
